

Laura Kirchin: Early Years

I am Vice Principal and Early Years Foundation Stage Lead at Widnes Academy. Following many successful years leading the Early Years provision within my school, I am now a Local Authority moderator within Halton. I work closely with a range of Early Years settings providing training, assessment support and moderation of teacher judgements. I am an experienced qualified primary school teacher and have also completed the Teaching Leaders programme.